

Celebration of the World Environment Day

VECC Swachhata Committee and Public Awareness Cell celebrated the World Environment Day as a part of National Swachhata Mission initiated by the Government of India on 5th June, 2024. Students from different schools and colleges participate in the event. A special lecture by Dr. Atanu Raha, IFS (Retd.) Former PCCF, Govt. of West Bengal and Emeritus Professor, Techno India University was delivered on “Sundarban, Climatic Change and Adaptation Mitigation”. The students participated in tree plantation, quiz, virtual visit of VECC and video show on Beach clean-up programme conducted by VECC Swachhata Committee was shown.