परिपत्र / CIRCULAR

Sub.: Research publications and communications using the name as in Enrolment and certificate from the Guide – reg.

1. In all the scientific publications & communications, students should use the same name as it is enrolled in HBNI. Using the initials for the first/middle/last names and the change of their positions may be alright, but no addition and/or deletion of any of those is acceptable.
2. Journal publications/book-chapters/conference papers resulted from the Ph.D. thesis work should be clearly indicated in the list of publications provided during synopsis/thesis submission.
3. There should be a "Certificate from the Guide on Publications", mentioning the following points clearly while submitting the synopsis:
 - (i) Student's contribution in the publication as well the part of the work in the publication that has been included in the thesis.
 - (ii) Certifying that the co-authors of the publications have no objection in including a part or full work thereof in the thesis.
 - (iii) Certifying that the part of the work already included in the thesis will not be included again in any other thesis.

The format of the Certificate from guide is attached herewith for your perusal. This format will also be available in the HBNI website.
